

Join us as a Featured Restaurant at the 8th Annual Scales & Ales!

Promote your business and show support for Audubon Aquarium of the Americas!

- Who? Scales & Ales attracts more than 3,000 New Orleanians from all over the metro area. It is a sell-out, one-of-a-kind event, providing guests a rare opportunity to see Audubon Aquarium of the Americas at night!
- What? Scales & Ales is an adults-only event, featuring delicious cuisine from local restaurants, live entertainment, wine and a great selection of beer.
- When? Friday, September 29, 2017
7:00-11:00pm
- Where? Audubon Aquarium of the Americas & Woldenberg Park
- Why? Proceeds from Scales & Ales support Audubon Aquarium of the Americas' valuable work in education and conservation.
- How? Join Scales & Ales by participating as a Featured Restaurant and benefit from great exposure!

As a Featured Restaurant:

You provide:

- A featured dish (approx 1,500 3 oz. portions)
- Servers/staff
- Serving supplies
- Decorations to dress up your table(s)

Audubon provides:

- All requested tables (6 ft.)
- Linen
- Electricity (if desired)
- Official signage

Audubon Nature Institute recognizes the importance of a robust, local fishing industry to the economy, culture and heritage of our great state. We ask that you keep this in mind as you plan your menu for Scales & Ales. Should you serve a seafood dish, please consider using seafood harvested from the Gulf of Mexico. Thank you!

If you are interested in participating in Scales & Ales or have any questions, please contact Stephanie Vega at (504) 212-5315 or SVega@AudubonInstitute.org. Thank you!