

Audubon Commission

Audubon Nature Institute
Celebrating the Wonders of Nature

Audubon Park Master Plan Public Meeting March 6, 2018 Audubon Tea Room

Audubon Commission President J. Kelly Duncan called the meeting to order and stated that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the Audubon Park Master Plan. Mr. Duncan then introduced Chimene Grant Saloy, VP of Marketing for Audubon Nature Institute. Ms. Saloy outlined the principles that are guiding the master plan process including preservation and heritage, education and culture, access and infrastructure, recreation, entertainment and wellness and environmental stewardship.

Ms. Saloy then introduced Mr. Mark Ripple, Principle of Eskew, Dumez, Ripple who reviewed a summary of the previous meeting. He then stated that the current meeting will be broken into break out stations by district of the park with each station facilitated by an Eskew, Dumez, Ripple and an Audubon Nature Institute employee. He then invited everyone to walk around and participate in the informal group participation sessions.

After the sessions, Mr. Ripple thanked everyone for participating and asked a member of each table to report on the finding of their session. Mr. Ripple then asked the representative from the City of New Orleans present to give an update on the Magazine Street corridor project.

Mr. Duncan thanked everyone for coming and encouraged the public to visit the Audubon Park Master Plan website and to attend the next public meeting on Thursday, April 5 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm in the Audubon Tea Room.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 pm.

Audubon Commission members present: Beth Lambert, Bruce Hoefler, Field Ogden, Kelly Duncan, Brent Wood

Audubon Nature Institute members present: Willard Dumas